What is the Special Education Intern Professional Development Institute?

The Foundation for Comprehensive Early Literacy Learning is proud to sponsor the Special Education Intern Professional Development Institute at the Riverside Marriott Hotel in Riverside, California. The institute will use an intense training format for Special Education Interns in literacy acquisition for children with mild/moderate/severe disabilities. Research-based teaching practices in reading and writing that are proven effective will be highlighted.

Topics will include:

-  Reading process
-  Reciprocity of reading and writing
-  Gradual release of responsibility teaching model
-  Classroom organization and management
-  Reading teaching methods
-  Writing teaching methods
-  Individual and small group interventions

Special Features of the Institute

Assessment

How to implement data-based decision-making in literacy instruction will be featured. This will include the role of the special education teacher in the RtI (Response to Intervention) model for special education referral and placement.

Intervention

Strategic Literacy Support, the SLS Cycle of Instruction, will also be highlighted as an effective model of individual and small group support in reading and writing instruction. This session will include videotaped samples of the cycle implementation.

LEAD PRESENTER: Stanley L. Swartz, Ph. D.
